TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR NO. 27.

CEDARVILLE, OHIO, FRIDAY, JULY 15 1904.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR.

MIDNIGHT BLAZE

Causes the Destruction of a Comfortable Home Wednesday
IS A TOTAL LOSS.

Kerosene Lamp Believed to Have Exploded.—Dwelling and Household Goods Insured.

The local fire department received a call Wednesday night about midnight, the first in several months, to the residence of Mrs. Rose near the U. L. church. When the discovery was first made, the fire was confined to the two middle rooms and was burning furiously. Neighbors forced open the door and began removing the goods, but before any great quantity had been moved the burning ceiling and roof was falling in.

The fireman and neighbors worked like Trojans and succeeded in saving a large share of the goods. Many of the articles saved were badly scorched and damaged by the heat. The damage to the house is probably beyond repair.

The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from the explosion of a lamp left burning on the stand. Mrs. Rose is visiting in Indiana, the house being left in the care of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Boyd. The latter was away during the evening, leaving the lamp burning as is the custom. On her return she found the home in ruins.

The insurance on the house $400, while there is another policy in the W. L. Clemens Agency on both house and household goods for $1000. The former policy is held by a Xenia agency.

GREENE COUNTY FAIR.

The races and purses hung up at the Xenia fair are as follows:
WEDNESDAY, AUG. 3.—2:35 pace, $300; 2:50 trot, $300; running races, 1 mile heats, $100.
THURSDAY, AUG. 4.—2:50 pace, $300; 2:18 trot, $300; 2:17 pace, $300.
FRIDAY, AUG. 5.—2:25 pace, $300; 2:28 trot, $300; running, mile heat, $100.

PATIENTLY WAITING.

"The Greene County Oil and Gas Company will be ready for work in a few days," was the statement made by Ben. Jesse Taylor, of Jamestown, to the Herald Wednesday morning.

"We have our drilling outfit purchased and it is expected here this week. The bores are expected from Dayton in a few days. The first well the company will sink will be on the J. G. Clemens farm northeast of town. Different members of the company, with the assistance of Mr. W. L. Clemens, have leased several thousand acres and raised a large sum of money by the sale of the company's stock. A number of Cedarville township citizens hold large interests in the company, and they are now anxiously waiting for the first gusher."

NOTICE.

The undersigned will, until further notice, close their place of business in the evening at 8 o'clock, standard time, with the exception of Saturday nights.

C. C. WEMMER,
C. H. CHOUSE.

The Houston Company, of South Charleston, expect to ship this week 500,000 pounds of wool to Baltimore. The shipment will require about twenty cars and cost from 20 to 25 cents, some washed costing 30 cents.

FIRST GRADE.

Through the untiring efforts of Prof. K. E. Randall, assisted by the board of education, our high school is now rated first grade by the State School Commissioner, Lewis Bonebrake. Just this spring Prof. Randall outlined a new course of study which the board adopted. At their last meeting $150 was appropriated to increase the library and furnish more apparatus for the science classes. The course has been approved by the school commissioner in every particular. The certificate showing the standing of the high school arrived Saturday. Graduates can now enter colleges and universities without examination.

DEATH OF MR. ZEINER.

Mr. John G. Zeiner died at his home in Jamestown, last Monday night, at the age of 77 years. Death resulted from a surgical operation. He was born in Bavaria, and emigrated to this country with his parents, settling in Pennsylvania. He resided in Cedarville for a short time, and in 1892 located in Jamestown.

He was engaged in the furniture and undertaking business for a number of years, and was regarded as the oldest dealer in the county.

A wife, three sons, Frank, J. W. and Albert, residing at Jamestown, and two daughters, Mrs. Margaret Crain and Mrs. Charles Ridgway of this place survive him. The funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon, and were conducted by the Masonic fraternity.

A NEAT PIECE OF WORK.

Mr. John Pierce has just completed a three-quarter horse power boiler to be used in running a small engine belonging to Ray Hitchcock. It is one of the handiest and most unique pieces of work of its kind ever turned out in this vicinity, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Mr. Pierce. Mr. Hitchcock will use his engine to revolve the fans which he will place in his billiard parlor.

BADLY BENT.

The Dayton and Xenia Traction company and the city council of Xenia are at arms over the paving of Detroit street in that city. The city is desirous of paying the thoroughfare, and the traction company it is obliged to pass between its tracks and 18 inches on each side. In a letter to the council, O. J. Farneding of Dayton, president of the Dayton and Xenia, issues an ultimatum to that body, in which he says that the company cannot nor will not pay for such paving, and that if forced to do so, the company will have to take up its tracks, surrender its franchise and cease to run cars. Mr. Farneding states that the company is under mortgages which necessitate heavy expenditures annually in interest, and that for this reason it is impossible for the company to do any paving in Xenia.

Reduced Fares to Franklin, Ohio, via Pennsylvania Lines.

July 14th to August 1st, inclusive, excursion tickets to Franklin (Warren County), Ohio, account Meeting Miami Valley Chautauqua, will be sold via Pennsylvania Lines. For information regarding fares, etc., apply to Local Ticket Agent of those lines.

Last Friday Harvey Cummings delivered here a bunch of 45 cattle that averaged 1374 pounds, and brought $5.75 per hundred. They were sold by the representative of Jacob Needy & Co., of Pittsburgh, who bought them, to be the smoothest he had yet received. And the 20 head of William Donavin, averaging 1350 pounds, and delivered at the same time, were very similar in all round merit to those of Cummings.—Jamestown Journal.

HILDEBRANT

Will Not Appeal to the Election Board Again But Will FIGHT IN COURTS.

Present Congressman Evidently About Ready to Forsake the Congressional "Ship."

It is surprising indeed to think that C. Q. Hildebrand still continues the fight for the congressionalship in the face of the election board's decision, a board he recognized as a jury for final settlement when he sent his legal representatives before it to plead his cause.

Over the district Mr. Hildebrand had many friends until his action in the convention at Wilmington, at which time a majority of the delegates refused to be ruled by the "iron hand" in opposition to Judge Scroggy. The Hildebrand forces ruled against other candidates as well as Greene county's choice, so when the refusal came to seat the Greene county delegation a second convention was called, and Judge Scroggy was nominated by a convention with the majority of the district delegates. The election board by a vote of eight to four has said that Judge Scroggy is the rightful nominee and this decision will stand.

are, in fact, Foreaker's strongest friends and that, after all, the Senator would not be averse to having Hildebrand represent this district in the next Congress.

The leader of the Scroggy faction in Warren County, a former Congressman Seth Brown. The Hildebrand men assert that Foreaker no longer regards the former Congressman as a staunch supporter and say that this situation was largely brought about by Mr. Brown's opposition in the county convention to a resolution endorsing the administration of President Roosevelt.

It is also interesting to note that Mr. Brown is said to have sent a telegram to Senator Foreaker a few days ago, protesting against the nomination of Seymour Tibbels as postmaster at Franklin.

In any event, it is evident that in the Hildebrand-Scroggy fight "the end is not yet."

A $25,000,000 mortgage was filed in the office of the county recorder here Saturday morning by the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad Company, securing that amount in 4 per cent gold bonds to the United States Mortgage and Trust Company, in connection with the recent deal by which the railroad company establishes a new and much larger system, including the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville and the Pere Marquette roads. The document contains forty printed pages and the cost of recording it will be $24. A similar mortgage will be filed in every county in the state traversed by the road.

DESERVING PRAISE

Given to a Former Fellow-Townsmen in the INLAND PRINTER.

W. D. Nesbit Numerous Writer and Poet Spoken of Highly in Trade Journal.

The Inland Printer for July prints a half-tone cut and a lengthy article of praise of our former fellow-townsmen, Wilbur D. Nesbit, now a humorous writer and poet on the Chicago Tribune. The article in part is as follows:

W. D. Nesbit, whose name is familiar to all who have an appreciation of the cherry side of life as portrayed in the daily papers and the humorous periodicals, is a man of thirty-three years who learned the trade of a printer but whose earlier education was planned with a view to his entering the ministry. Following the period spent in the printing business, he drifted into reporting, working variously and variously through Ohio and Indiana. When in Indianapolis he, for a time, wrote advertisements for a clothing firm, where he began his work in verse by putting jingles in the ads.

BASE BALL

The Business Men? and the Picked Nine Again.

TRIED TO PROVE

How Little They Knew About
Playing the National Game—
Some Rank Plays.

Eighteen alleged ball players, nine of whom claimed to be "business men," indulged in a game on the campus Monday afternoon. What the bunch did not know about the game would fill a large book. After battling for nine innings the game was awarded to "Picks by the score of 13 to 11. We haven't the space to spare or we would give a synopsis of the errors. Following is the lineup of the clubs:

Business Men—Hitchcock, catcher; McClellan, pitcher; Phillips, 1st; Gillaugh, 2d; Pendium, 3d; Ondon, s. s.; Rogers, l. f.; Tarbox, c. f.; McLean, r. f. Picked Nine—Frank Lee, catcher; Fisher, pitcher; Barlow, 1st; Jones, 2d; Oscar Lee, 3d; F. McFarland, s. s.; J. McFarland, l. f.; Stewart, c. f.; Creswell, r. f.

"Happy Hooligan" Barber relieved Postmaster Tarbox in the sixth inning, the latter going to Chicago to try and secure a position with either the "Chicago National or American team.

Ray Hitchcock has a case of "Charley Hoss" and did not play up to his usual high standing.

The B. M. used three pitchers, all of who received rough treatment.

Rev. Condon put up a great game at short; he accepted every chance and missed them all.

"O!" Rogers looked real pretty in his new white shoes.

"Bradley" Fisher pitched the game of his life.

Ed Pendium stopped between second and third base to arrange his necktie and was touched out.

The attendance of the fair was not as large as at last week's game.

"Zeke" Phillips was a shade off in his fielding and at the bat. Brace up, "Zeke," you are not so old.

It is to be hoped that the B. M. will brace up and win the next game.

It Pays to Read the Newspapers.

Cox, Wis., July 4.—Frank M. Russell of this place, had Kidney Disease so bad that he could not walk. He tried Doctors, treatment and many different remedies, but was getting worse. He was very low.

He read in a newspaper how Dodd's Kidney Pills were curing cases of Kidney Trouble, Bright's Disease and Rheumatism, and thought he would try them. He took two boxes, and now he is quite well. He says:—

"I can now work all day, and not feel tired. Before using Dodd's Kidney Pills, I couldn't walk across the floor."

Mr. Russell's is the most wonderful case ever known in Chippewa County. This new remedy—Dodd's Kidney Pills—is making some miraculous cures in Wisconsin.

In Full Blast—St. Louis World's Fair—Advantage of Going Now Over the Pennsylvania Lines.

With the last finishing touches, the two square miles of wonders at the St. Louis World's Fair may now be seen in all the splendor of newness. Forest Park is in the beauty of summer foliage. Visitors now are finding hotel and boarding accommodations to excellent advantage. For information about trains, excursion fares and free books describing the Exposition, communicate with E. S. Keyes, Ticket Agent, Pennsylvania Lines, Cedarville, O.

July 16th, 17th and 18th, excursion tickets to Cincinnati, account Annual Meeting Grand Lodge Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, will be sold from all ticket stations on the Pennsylvania Lines. For full information regarding fares, time of trains, etc., call on Local Ticket Agent of those lines.

Journal he received a call from the Baltimore American to come East. He accepted the invitation, and on that paper conducted his first regular feature work of verse and humor. His department on the American at once became a never-failing source of pleasure to a constantly widening circle of readers. Among his happiest efforts will be long remembered those delightful sketches written in the style of King Solomon, wherein he was wont to size up a local political situation, for perchance, call to mind the woman "who buyeth a bonnet for her head."

While on the Baltimore American a large part of his work was done under the name of "Josh Wink," a nom de plume belonging to the paper—any one doing the regular humorous department being to all intents and purposes "Josh Wink." After Mr. Nesbit left Baltimore to go with the Chicago Tribune, the "Josh Wink" column was continued for a time, just to demonstrate that the paper still had the right to use the nom de plume. The scintillations which emanated from the columns at this time gave rise to grave apprehensions in certain ill-informed quarters that Mr. Nesbit was seriously threatened with paralysis.

He has been on the staff of the Chicago Tribune since 1902. He writes a poem a day and a Sunday page of verse and humor. He contributes extensively to the various monthly and weekly magazines, besides finding time to do occasional song writing for comic operas.

Mr. Nesbit has given serious thought to the tendency of humorous writing as exemplified in the humorous periodicals of the day, and that he is capable of throwing out a sheet anchor to windward is well established by the serious verse that he has written, much of which has appeared under the heading of "Sermons in Song."

"The Trail to Boyland," a book of poems by Mr. Nesbit, will be issued

KINNANES'

The entire stock recently purchased by us of THEO. S. ANTHONY, Bankrupt—successor to Black & Anthony—

$250,000 together with our own aggregation, making in these two extensive stocks over Two Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars worth of the

BEST DRY GOODS, CARPETS AND CLOAKS

Stocks in any part of Ohio. These stocks will be placed on sale

MONDAY, JULY 18, 1904.

To remove all doubt as to the purchases of the entire stock fixtures, etc., pertaining to the stock of Theo. S. Anthony the accompanying letter should satisfy the most skeptical.

Know all Men by these Presents:

(COPY)

That Horace C. Keifer, Trustee of the estate of Theo. S. Anthony in bankruptcy, has received in cash from Kinnane Bros. Co. the full amount of the purchase, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged and does hereby sell, assign and transfer unto said Kinnane Bros. Company all the entire stock of dry goods, fixtures, etc., contained in the inventory on file with F. M. Krapp, Referee in Bankruptcy. Said sale is made subject to the terms, cash, and the conditions announced by said Trustee, at the opening of said public sale to which reference has been made a copy of said statement being hereto attached and made a part thereof.

Signed the 17th day of July, 1904, at Springfield, O.
HORACE C. KEIFER,
Trustee of Theo. S. Anthony, Bankrupt.

To enable us to justly estimate the value of Anthony's stock a force of employees were at once assigned for the purpose of making a correct estimate, which resulted, to our amazement, very favorable, inasmuch that the SILK, DRESS GOODS, HOSIERY and UNDERWEAR ALONE COVERED TWICE THE AMOUNT PAID FOR THE ENTIRE STOCK, FIXTURES, Etc., pertaining thereto.

As Is Our Rule and Methods We intend the Buying Public of Springfield and Surrounding Counties within 100 miles shall share with us our foresightedness and advantages in securing this exceptional stock and under such favorable circumstances.

"As for instance for illustration," the Silk department which is an unusually large one, the appraisers favored us very advantageously in their appraisement. There's thousands of yards of Imported Wash Silks we can and will sell at 10c a yard and fancy Silks at same price. There are thousands of yards of fine Silk suitable for Shirt Waists, that sold by Anthony at $1.00 we can and will sell at 39c; there are Cheney Bros. Foulard Silks, we will sell at 59c and everybody knows their price is $1.00. An endless variety of BLACK SILKS and this store only handled the best BLACK SILKS obtainable, these will go at just HALF. We were surprised to find the celebrated Peau-de-La-Vant Silks taken in at a price enabling us to sell at 59c, manufacturers' price at mill is $1.00.

BLACK AND COLORED DRESS GOODS is another instance where the appraisers favored us, as every price was invoiced at Half. Remnants were amassed together at a price that we shall close out at 15c a yard.

It is About Useless to detail here THE SUPERIORITY of Anthony's stock of HOSIERY and UNDERWEAR as this is where they held their name famous, as only the best lines were ever handled by this firm. WE FIND CASE AFTER CASE, UNBROKEN LINES and full boxes in condition as they left the mills.

MEN'S UNDERWEAR from the Forest, Norfolk, New Brunswick, Lansing and other celebrated. Ladies' underwear from the mills of Fort Schuyler, Munsing and Richleau. There's almost a full case of Ladies' Silk Underwear, that Anthony sold at $1.50, we shall sell at 50c and hundreds of dozens Men's, Women's and Children's we can sell at 5c.

LADIES' SUITS, SEPARATE SKIRTS, JACKETS, WRAPPERS, WASH SHIRT WAIST SUITS, and every kind of Children's READY-TO-WEAR GARMENTS. All these were invoiced so low that we shall offer ready-to-wear garments at 50c, $1.00 and $2.00 that are worth ten times this price; then again we find a lot of fine Ladies' Garments, that Anthony sold at $50.00, we shall close out $10.00.

Perfumes and Toilet Articles Will be about given away, as we do not handle this class of merchandise. Table Linens Domestic, Colored and White Wash Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, Corsets, Muslin Underwear, notions galore, Men's and Ladies' Furnishings, Lace Curtains, Portiers, Draperies, Silk and Mercerised Petticoats, Laces, Embroideries, Ribbons, Leather Goods, Handkerchiefs, these departments are astonishingly large of well selected goods, but will nevertheless all be but given away.

Taking this stock as a whole, we do find it the cleanest and best selected we ever had the experience of seeing under the same circumstances, and we are more than satisfied that everybody, as well as ourselves, will be taken aback when these extensive stocks are placed on sale next Monday.

Remember we pay car fare on all purchases of $10 or over.

Respectfully, THE KINNANE BROS. CO. Bushnell Building, Springfield, Ohio.
